Have a look under the hood

A crowd gathers Sunday morning on Jarvis Street at the second annual Bridgeburg Car and Bike Show, hosted by Fort Erie Fire Department station no. 2 and the Bridgeburg Business Improvement Area. Organizers say favourable weather conditions brought out a large crowd and hope the event can become even bigger next year. Almost $500 was collected through donations for Community Outreach Program Erie.

Council supports OHC

Local politicians agree with report that criticizes Niagara Health System

Kris Dubé
The Times

The Town of Fort Erie is showing its support for the Ontario Health Coalition (OHC), who recently issued a report that is highly critical of the Niagara Health System (NHS) and its hospital improvement plan.

The report is the product of hearings held in 12 municipalities, including the southern tier of Niagara.

There are two recommendations in the report that local politicians agree need to be addressed.

The first suggests that the provincial government should "send an investigator under the provisions of the Public Hospitals Act to investigate serious complaints and unresolved issues in the NHS."

NHS wants to keep working with communities and officials

This specifically refers to issues regarding finances, human resources, management and the accessibility to quality care in Niagara. In addition to investigating the previously mentioned issues, the OHC feels an immediate review and evaluation of the impact of the service cuts in Niagara should be conducted.

"This review should include meaningful and accessible public input," says the recommendation.

The second resolution supported by local elected officials is that the province should place a moratorium on closures of emergency departments.

"There is no appropriate assessment of capacity and policy to ensure reasonable access to urgent care in these regions and restructuring costs have not been assessed or approved," reads the report.

Christine Clark, chief communications officer for the NHS said public debate is fundamental when it comes to improving something as important as healthcare and that the OHC has been a "catalyst" for dialogue on healthcare matters locally, provincially and nationally.

"The NHS wants to work constructively with communities and their elected members," said Clark.

A statistic the NHS has regularly brought up during debate over the hospital plan is that 85 per cent of patients who used the emergency room at Douglas Memorial before the plan's implementation were being treated with the same level of care provided at urgent care centres.

The other five per cent are taken to a site with the proper equipment and medical professionals.

"Patients should receive their care at the most appropriate full-service emergency room, not necessarily the closest emergency room," said Clark.

Clark continued by saying that an investigation into the NHS would not change the realities faced by hospitals, saying the hospital plan addresses evidence-based challenges relating to quality and resources.

"The NHS is committed to enhancing service and improving quality care to Niagarans and the changes outlined in the HIP are fundamental to quality improvement," said Clark.

Concert lineup announced for Friendship Festival

➤ Hedley and Five Man Electrical Band headlining 24th annual event

The schedule has been set for this year's Friendship Festival.

On the night of Friday July 2, the concert sponsored by the Ontario Lottery and Gaming Corporation (OLG) will be headlined by Vancouver rock group Hedley, who took home numerous Much Music Video Awards last year and have even earned a handful Canadian Radio Music Awards.

The concert will be opened by the Johnstones and Street Pharmacy, both of whom use a mix of ska-punk and reggae in their style of music.

Admission to all concerts at the festival is free.

"It's really fantastic that we are able to bring such an exciting Canadian musical group to Fort Erie through our OLG Presents Musical program," said Rob Moore, a senior vice-president at OLG.

On July 3, there will be another free concert, featuring the Five Man Electrical Band, who are most known for their hit song

"Signs," that hit Billboard's top 100 list in 1971. On the same night, fans will also be treated to the sounds of "Summer Jam," a collective of musicians performing songs by iconic acts like the Grateful Dead, the Band and the Allman Brothers Band.

There will also be live entertainment at the Mather's Arch patio on July 1, 2 and 3 from noon to 7 p.m.

There will be a Canada Day concert on the patio, called "Songs Collide," a mix of hometown singers and songwriters performing their own material from 8 p.m. to 11 p.m., with a break at 10 p.m. for the annual fireworks display.

For seating at Mather's Arch during the evening, main stage concerts, for the cost of $10, contact the Friendship Festival office at (905) 871-6454.

Proceeds will benefit various local agencies.

The Mayor's Youth Advisory Committee will host a Battle of the Bands on July 2.

The second annual Celtic Gathering on July 4 features the Playford Players, Ancient Mariners, Toronto Morris Dancers, McPherson's Rant and Against the Grain.

These performances will take place at the Mather's Arch patio.

Many other features and attractions will also be a part of this year's festivities including rides, games, craft and food vendors, along with much more to do for the entire family, every day the festival runs.

Helping Hands

Recently, students from Fort Erie Secondary School could be found at Community Living Fort Erie's Industrial Drive location planting flowers and beautifying the non-profit organization's local site. In its fifth year, the Helping Hands Initiative is designed to give back to the community in some way. This year, produce grown in one of the new gardens will benefit Community Outreach Program Erie.

Prosperity Initiative brings big dollars into north end

Various programs to benefit from recent investment

Kris Dubé
The Times

Nearly $300,000 is being invested into the North End, thanks to the Niagara Prosperity Initiative and its funding for 12 poverty-reduction neighbourhood development projects in the area.

The projects, that include after school and summer programs for youth, mental health counselling, reading programs for children and parents, nutrition programs, a furniture bank and the summer Inter-municipal transit system will be delivered to 10 local agencies.

The funding is part of a $1.5 million investment in seven neighbourhoods identified as most in need throughout the region.

"Niagara's Prosperity Initiative is providing assistance and the tools to help individuals, families and neighbourhoods address and prevent poverty," said Brian Bray, regional councillor and co-chair of the Region's public health and social services committee.

"Through this important initiative, the Niagara Region is working to improve the lives of those most in need and to build a stronger community... one in which everyone can participate," added Shirley Gordner, Fort Erie's regional councillor.

Niagara's Prosperity Initiative is a partnership between private, voluntary and public sectors established to leverage existing resources and to develop new resources to address poverty at the neighbourhood level. It is funded by the Niagara Region through cost savings and from the implementation of the Ontario Child Benefit program.

The Business Education Council acts as a secretariat for the initiative. Last year, Niagara Region community services developed a mapping tool to help guide decisions about which neighbourhoods should receive attention. The indicators used in the mapping tool included school readiness, education level, income level, unemployment levels and the percentage of income spent on housing.

Seven neighbourhoods between Fort Erie, Port

Colborne, Welland, Niagara Falls, Grimsby and St. Catharines were identified as most in need.

Projects to receive funding include the RAFT's after school program at Fort Erie

Elementary School, the Boys and Girls Club of Niagara, Crystal Beach Public School, Bridges Community Health Centre, Niagara Child and Youth Services, the John Howard Society, the Fort

Erie Multicultural Centre, among a few others.

In total, $298,176 is being spent on the variety of programs and services benefited by the recent announcement.

Steam engine finds its way home

Former CNR diesel shop taken over by Niagara Railway Museum

Kris Dubé
The Times

The Niagara Railway Museum (NRM) is proud to announce a recent addition to its family.

This week, the group of railway enthusiasts brought home the steam locomotive no. 46, an engine president and founder Ken Jones Jr. says in an integral part of this area's history.

It was built by an American locomotive company in New Jersey in the 1920s and was used by the Hydro Electric Power Commission in Niagara Falls, operating during the Queenston-Chippawa project.

Its new home is located at the museum's new headquarters on Warren Street, a building formerly used by the CNR's diesel shop until 1989.

On Tuesday, the steam locomotive was brought to its new Fort Erie home by trailer from Orillia, and will be a subsidiary-based company that specializes in the haulage of railway artifacts and equipment.

"It was a really good trip for us," said Jones Jr.

The locomotive will be added to a collection of about 20 other items, to the building that has been heavily vandalized since it shut its doors.

"It's a constant effort to keep people out of here," he said before adding that the Niagara Regional Police will be patrolling the area more frequently now that these valuable historical items are being stored there.

Jones Jr. estimates the NRM's goal of raising about $50,000 for cosmetic restoration of the engine can be achieved through various events and open houses. He is also aiming to be open to the public by 2011.

He admits there is still a

“It's rough, but it needed to be here.”

— Ken Jones Jr.

lot of work to accomplish, but bringing such an important part of local history back to where it originated is something he had to do.

"It's rough, but it needed to be here," he said. "I'm here sitting outside for most of its life."

President and founder of the Niagara Railway Museum Ken Jones Jr. stands next to the steam locomotive engine no. 46, that was transported to its new home in the former CNR diesel shop this week from the Orillia area. Jones Jr. is hoping the museum will be able to open its doors to the public by 2011.

AN INNER-EAR BYPASS

The ear is divided into three parts: The outer ear contains the external ear and ear canal; the middle ear contains the eardrum and three small bones; and the inner ear includes the cochlea, three semi-circular canals, and one end of the auditory nerve (leading to the brain). In the complex inner ear, the cochlea is filled with fluid surrounding thousands of tiny hair cells (cilia) that translate vibrations into electrical currents that go to the brain. Those with severe sensorineural (nerve) hearing loss in both ears that doesn't improve with traditional hearing instruments might consider a cochlear implant. This serves as an "inner-ear bypass" that sends sound from the outside world and transmits it to the auditory nerve.

Although you might suspect that you need help with your hearing, you may not be aware of the different modes of treatment, hearing instruments, and other hearing enhancement devices that are available today. It takes the knowledge, experience, and dedication of an audiologist to accurately assess an individual's hearing loss and then match and custom-fit that individual with the most appropriate hearing aid. # Parker would be so proud of everyone

Everything worked out exactly how its creator would have wanted.

The recent "Let's Make it Happen" fundraising event for the Lions Club Dog Guides Foundation was a huge success in so many ways.

It was originally the idea of well-known resident Rob Parker, who passed away earlier this year, likely when he was right in the middle of working out all the details for the event.

This week, the Times met with his friends and family, along with members of the local service club he was also a member of.

The reason for the meeting was to take a photo of a cheque presentation to the foundation that benefited from Parker's event.

We attend many photo opportunities of this nature but this one was extra special.

Firstly, the Lions Club donated almost $11,000 which is absolutely remarkable.

But even more importantly, there is no denying the fact that Parker would be more than pleased with the end result.

Everyone involved with organizing this event and making it such a success should be very proud of the exceptional effort put forward that will hopefully help this become an annual tradition.

-Kris Dubé

Do You Remember?

They were the lucky winners of a brand new colour TV at Christmas time in the 1960's. Not only was it their first colour TV, but it was also one of the first colour sets in their neighbourhood. It couldn't have come at a better time as Mr. Hoyle had just gotten out of the hospital. Thank you to Gordon and Meretta Hoyle as well as to their son Douglas and daughter-in-law Marie. Thanks as well to Janet Boyce who identified Don Young on the far right and told us that Mr.

Young's father and grandfather both served as treasurers for Bertie Township. This week's photo shows some of Fort Erie's fine firefighters in full uniform. Which fire station is this and who are these men? If you know, please call the museum at (905) 894-5322 or send an email to museum.forterie.on.ca.

Editor looking forward to local summer events

Kris Dubé
Editor's Notebook

There's nothing better than an old-fashioned Fort Erie summer.

Even though the season doesn't officially change for another few weeks, it feels like it already has and I'm looking forward to what lies in the near future.

I apologize if readers find me to be repetitive, regularly explaining how much it irks me to hear people my age complain about the lack of events to enjoy locally but I need to once more to prove my point this week.

If you feel this way halfway through the summer... then there's something wrong with you.

I'll admit I'm not a fan of Hedley, the headlining concert act at this year's Friendship Festival, but that doesn't mean I'm not looking forward to the 24th run of Fort Erie's most prolific event.

This also doesn't mean I'm criticizing organizers of the festival for their choice... because I'm fully aware they are extremely popular and will definitely draw a large crowd... and that's what it's all about.

The Fort Erie Music Fest is slated to take place again at Waterfront Park in Crystal Beach, Ridgeway will face adversity with the makeover of Ridge Road and still be held.

I could go on for quite a bit here.

There is no shortage of entertainment this summer and proud local residents should be looking forward to most of them.

I know I am.

I've only used a mere portion of events going on this summer as examples in this column and I don't want people to feel I'm overlooking the many that I failed to mention.

There are many we plan to cover since we have already been contacted, but if you are the organizer of an event that we may not be aware of yet... please let us know because we are probably just as enthusiastic about it as you are.

Feel free to leave me feedback at (905) 871-3100 ext. 207 or send me an email at editorial@forterietimes.com.

Yellow Shirt Brigade joins Hudak at Queen's Park on Tuesday

Dear Editor,

What a bright sunny day it was again on Tuesday and we helped brighten the question and answer session of the Legislature at Queen's Park, as we sat there proudly wearing our bright yellow shirts.

The Yellow Shirt Brigade was invited to Queens Park on Tuesday by Tim Hudak, Leader of the Progressive Conservative Party of Ontario. Twelve of us went and had a great day.

Tim spoke to us in his office, prior to our seating in the gallery, and we openly discussed the health care problems in Niagara and the dangerous situation that we, in Fort Erie and Port Colborne, are facing.

We gave him a report put out by the Town of Fort Erie which is an information update on the Douglas Memorial Hospital and also told the story endured by Ward 3 Coun. Bob Steckley and his family.

Bob's 16 year old son was diagnosed in the Douglas Memorial Hospital with acute appendicitis, then, waited for hours in a hospital, waiting to be seen by a surgeon. His appendix ruptured.

Had this taken place before health cuts to Fort Erie, while we still had an operating room and available surgeons, his appendix would have been removed immediately upon diagnosis and recovery would most likely have been unremarkable.

This is just one case of so many that we hear every day.

I am sure that I speak up for the others in the Yellow Shirt Brigade when I say that I was pleased to see Tim Hudak stand up for health care in our community and challenge this government to direct health care dollars to where they should go. They should go to front line health care. They should not be used for high salaries and expenses.

Kim Cralter came into the gallery and sat with us for a while during the session, as did Tim Hudak, and Andrea Horwath came out and talked to us after it was over. Both Kim and Andrea have shown their support all along and we appreciate all they are doing. Andrea invited us to the Legislature several times and I am sure Kim would welcome us as usual, but I cannot see the Liberal party issuing us a personal invitation.

Perhaps I am wrong, Debbie Matthews, minister of health did wear a bright yellow shirt and the minister of Finance had on a yellow tie.

Wouldn't it be nice if they really did care?

As I said to the health minister, while looking her in the eye, "You all know the old saying... keep your friends close and your enemies closer."

I am sure she knew what I meant.

Once again, keep in mind that an election year is coming and we have to do it right this time.

Vote for the one that is willing to stand up and fight for equal and accessible health care to all residents of Ontario.

Vote for the right person, the one that will put your wishes first. Do not just follow old family traditions and practice.

It does not matter who started it. It matters who stops it! Remember too that we are still growing and will continue to grow and be heard.

Rio Vista Retirees in full swing with 46 golfers

Dear Editor,

It was another weekly event this Wednesday morning for our Rio Vista seniors.

A turn-out of 46 golfers shows how popular these events are but also illustrates how much these seniors enjoy the game of golf, but also how fond they are of socializing with guys just like themselves.

The event this week was the popular Texas Scramble format and at least two drives must be used by each player.

It was very competitive and scores were low. The winning foursome with a 24 net went to Earl Sims, Nick Langelaan, Clive Acaster and Stan Hislop.

Because of a tie, the runners-up with a 24.75 net had to be decided by retrogression... they were Dennis Hutton, John White, Pat Ryan and Barry Hopkins.

The weekly draw was picked up by John Corry and the free pass went to Gerry Perdue. Next week will be the 3-2-1 format. Golfers are asked to remember the event starts at 8 a.m. and you need to register by 7:45 a.m.

Fort Erie Secondary School student finishes third at national competition

Grade 12 student Doug Calvert shows off some of his medals he won this year taking part in precision machining competitions across Canada. This was the first time Fort Erie Secondary School was represented at the national level.

Doug Calvert represents FESS in its first appearance at the Canada Skills Competition

Matt Day
The Times

For the first time in Fort Erie Secondary School's history, the school can finally say one of its students has successfully completed with the best in Canada at the Canadian Skills Competition held in Waterloo this year.

And what makes this accomplishment so unique is just how Doug Calvert fared at the precision machining competition.

After successfully defeating the rest of the competition at the District School Board of Niagara finals, the regional finals and the provincial finals, Calvert was invited to the nationals... a place no other FESS student has been.

"We had no idea what to expect there," said Paul Bernier, the school's precision machining teacher.

"Once he began, it was very clear that he was in it to win it."

Although Calvert didn't take home gold, he said he was extremely happy finishing third with only one per cent differentiating him from the rest of the competition.

"I'm not disappointed at all. I was competing against students who go to schools specifically geared to this kind of thing and knowing I was only one per cent off of them feels amazing."

Bernier said he has been to the provincial championships eight times in the last 10 years, but has never advanced to the nationals.

He said it was Calvert's meticulous work ethic that has made him stick out from the other students.

"He's a very smart kid and doesn't get stressed under pressure. His math and science knowledge is also phenomenal and that helped him a lot."

Calvert said he wasn't nervous about representing Ontario at the national level held during the end of May.

"I walked into the competition not viewing it as one. I just wanted to do my best because that's all you can do," he said. "Plus, I like this kind of work and if you don't like what you're doing, you take no pride in your final product."

Although his skills at precision machining are top notch in Canada at a Grade 12 level, he said this isn't the field he will be going into for post secondary education.

Bernier said much of the credit needs to go to Aerospace Technologies who have always accepted co-op students into their work environment to gain a better understanding of the field.

As for the relationship Bernier shares with Calvert, he said it's more than a teacher to student one.

"I consider Doug more of a friend than a student and we have huge mutual respect for one another."

Fort Erie Secondary School's Spencer Brown finished right behind Calvert at the DSRN competition.

Senior football team re-locating to RCBHS

Kris Dubé
The Times

Major changes to the local high school football circuit are on their way.

Starting in September, the Fort Erie Secondary School (FESS) Falcons senior team will be re-locating to Ridgeway-Crystal Beach High School (RCBHS) and will officially become Blue Devils.

In recent years, the Falcons consisted of one team made up of students in both junior and senior grades from both local high schools. Now, FESS will only have a junior team and the senior team will be based out of RCBHS, playing its games behind the Crystal Ridge Community Centre. Last year's Falcons team had 12

RCBHS students on the roster, most of whom will be returning to play for their home school in the upcoming season.

Calvin Nigh, a history teacher at RCBHS, will be taking the reins as head coach for the team that is making its comeback after 36 years and is very excited to bring back an old past time at the high school that hasn't existed since the 1970s.

"It feels great and I have 60 kids who want to play," he said.

Sometimes it was a challenge for RCBHS students, travelling to the opposite end of Greater Fort Erie for regular practices and Nigh says the majority of the returning members are looking forward to this no longer being an issue. And at the same time, they are excited to play for their own school.

"The players really want the team in Ridgeway," he said.

The biggest play the team is running right now is reaching out to the community for fundraising, as there isn't enough money in the budget for equipment to dress the entire team. Nigh is hoping a goal of $20,000 can be reached through various events scheduled during the remainder of the school year and during the summer, leading up to the first game in September, where they will compete in the Southern Ontario Secondary Schools Association zone 3 division.

"They just need equipment... football is expensive." To make a donation, contact Nigh at (905) 984-3461.

Meteors looking for new bench boss during off-season

Matt Day
The Times

It's something that Tony Passero is not used to doing. For the second straight year, the Fort Erie Junior B Meteors will be looking for a new bench boss after last year's new head coach, Ivan Charrois, decided to call it quits.

Charrois was given the opportunity to coach alongside Murray Nystrom at Brock University and although he's leaving the Meteors after only one year, Passero said there are no hard feelings.

"It's a good step up for him. He told me about the situation and yes, it does leave us in a bit of a hole right now but he's moving up and that's something we firmly believe in as an organization," said Passero.

The Meteors organization never had to worry about head coaching issues prior to last year thanks to the long-term commitment from Wayne Groulx.

That relationship turned out to create the formula of what the Meteors are looking for in a head coach; someone who is geared toward the development of young players and helping them succeed not only in Junior B Hockey, but potentially in more competitive leagues.

"We need a guy who is dedicated six and seven days a week towards making our team better. It's not a part-time deal," stressed Passero. "I'm open to anybody as long as the main things are taken care of, such as playing Fort Erie players and young kids so everyone can get a chance on the ice."

He said he wants a coach who believes in the same principles as the rest of the veteran organization, but can also offer up fresh new ideas to better the team of 16 to 20-year-olds.

Passero pointed out they are not looking for any assistant coaches and that a July 1 soft deadline has been set.

"If we don't feel any of the guys interviewed are the perfect fit to the team, then we aren't done searching," said Passero. "Having said that, if there comes a time where a new coach is needed I know I can step in and do the job no problem." Meanwhile, the players are already preparing for next season having participated in team skates this week.

Passero said he's already invited out some prospects they've been interested in signing and is hoping the trend of losing many of the team's core guys doesn't continue.

"I'm hoping to trust the players this year and it's tough. I understand some other teams are going to dangle offers in front of them, but I really feel good about next year's team."

He said he was excited knowing a few of the club's new, young talent has already committed to the team for the 2010-11 season.

As for who will be head coach of that team, Passero is in the early stages of conducting interviews.

"I'm disappointed I have to do this all over again, but again, you have to do what you have to do."

It's A Girl!

O'ROURKE (nee Heckman)

Brian and Patty are thrilled to announce the birth of their third child, CARLEIGH SHARON O'ROURKE. She was born on May 27th, 2010 at 1:09 pm. Carleigh weighed 6 lbs, 14 oz. Big brothers Bailey and Brady are very excited about their new baby sister and can't wait to meet her. Carleigh is the 3rd grandchild for Bob and Charlene Heckman of Fort Erie and the 4th grandchild for Don O'Rourke of St. Catharines. Watching from heaven is her grandma Sharon O'Rourke. Carleigh is loved by her aunts and uncle (Kristen Heckman, David and Melodie O'Rourke) and her cousin (Emma O'Rourke). Carleigh is the 5th great grandchild for Ruth Blessing of Fort Erie. Carleigh was born at McMaster Hospital and continues to be in the care of the wonderful Neonatal Intensive Care Unit. We continue to pray that Carleigh can come home with us soon. Thank you to Dr. Smith and all the nurses, doctors, surgeons and staff at McMaster for all their support. We appreciate all that the Port of Macdonald House has done to help us during this difficult time. Thank you to our wonderful family members and friends who continue to pray for Carleigh.

In memoriam

In loving memory of a dear husband
CAL SHERK
who passed away June 8, 2006
Those whom we love go out of sight,
But never out of mind;
They are cherished in the hearts
Of those they leave behind.
Leaving and kind in all his ways,
Upright and just in all his days;
Sincere and true in heart and mind,
Beautiful memories he left behind.
Lovingly remembered by wife Lois.

In memoriam

In memory of
JESSIE K. EDEN
7/28/46 - 6/7/09

Dear Jessie,

I love you Jess, with all my heart,
My cherished wife and best friend,
Ours is a love that deepened through the years,
And it's a love that will never end.

Thank you for being a kind wife and mother,
Who blessed our home and family,
By doing special things for each one of us,
And living us unconditionally.

You watched over us in good times and bad,
You honored every wedding vow,
As you cared for us in sickness and health,
We feel lost without you now.

It's so hard to accept that life has changed,
And it will never be the same again,
As I face a future without you,
My dearest wife and best friend.

I love you and miss you dearly,
John

In memoriam

In memory of
JESSIE K. EDEN
7/28/46 - 6/7/09

Remembering a Wonderful Mom and Grandma.

Your perfectly folded clothes sitting in a pile;
A letter from you saved in a file;
A children's book signed affectionately
"Love, Mom"
A phone call that can't be made because we know you're gone.

Your pink roses in the garden growing again;
A compass in our hearts, so we can always find you;
Remembering your warm gentle hug at the door.
And holiday gatherings - oh, how we wish
there were more!

Memories last forever; people do not.
When it's time to go, it can't be fought;
We're comforted to know we had a wonderful mom.
But saddened to know you're already gone.

We'll keep your memory alive forever.
Hoping to give to our children, as much as you gave to us.

Remembering your beautiful smile and laughter, everyday...
We miss you and love you so much, mom
(and grandpa),
Dave, Nick, Chantal, Zachary, and Chloe

There is a sad and sweet remembrance,
There is memory fond and true,
There is a kiss of affection
And a heartache still for you.
